Pen & Paper Bar Trivia Presents:

Welcome to Pen & Paper Trivia!

ROUND 1

ROUND 2

ROUND 3

ROUND 4

February 2018

@ Tatoheads Public House

Hosted by Nathan McKnight

Welcome to Pen & Paper Trivia!

Our first time!
Please provide feedback on the back of answer sheets.

Rules

Prizes

Gameplay

Teams of 5 max
Four Rounds, Three Categories, Five Questions
All questions worth a total of 4 points
Some questions will be multi-part

Scoring

Exchange cards each round
Turn cards in to host
Winners announced, prizes awarded

Sportsmanlike conduct

If you encounter an error, don't sweat it, but do let me know
All cellphone use will be considered cheating
If you must use a phone, step away for the round

Prizes

Round 1: Shwag
Round 2: $10 gift voucher
Round 3: $20 gift voucher
Round 4: $30 gift voucher

Limitations:

One prize per team per round
It's up to teams to decide how to use/share prizes
Vouchers can be exchanged starting the following day
You may exchange one voucher per party, per night
May not be used in combination with any other offers or coupons
In accordance with Ohio law, vouchers may not be used for alcohol purcha

Warm up!

ROUND 1

Total of 75 points possible

Prize: Swag

Sports Stars Behaving Badly

Madame President

Ice Holes

ROUND 1 ANSWERS

Sports Stars Behaving Badly

Great athletes having bad days.

1.

This turn of the century major league baseball pitcher was known for, among other things, wrestling alligators in the off season. He shares his first name with a well known designer of complicated machines.

2.

This is a two-part fill-in-the-banks question: Disgraced Cincinnati Reds switch hitter Pete Rose was known by his nickname "Charlie _____". Second part: During its heyday in the late 70s, his team was nicknamed the "Big Red _____". Fill in the blank. (2 points for each right answer)

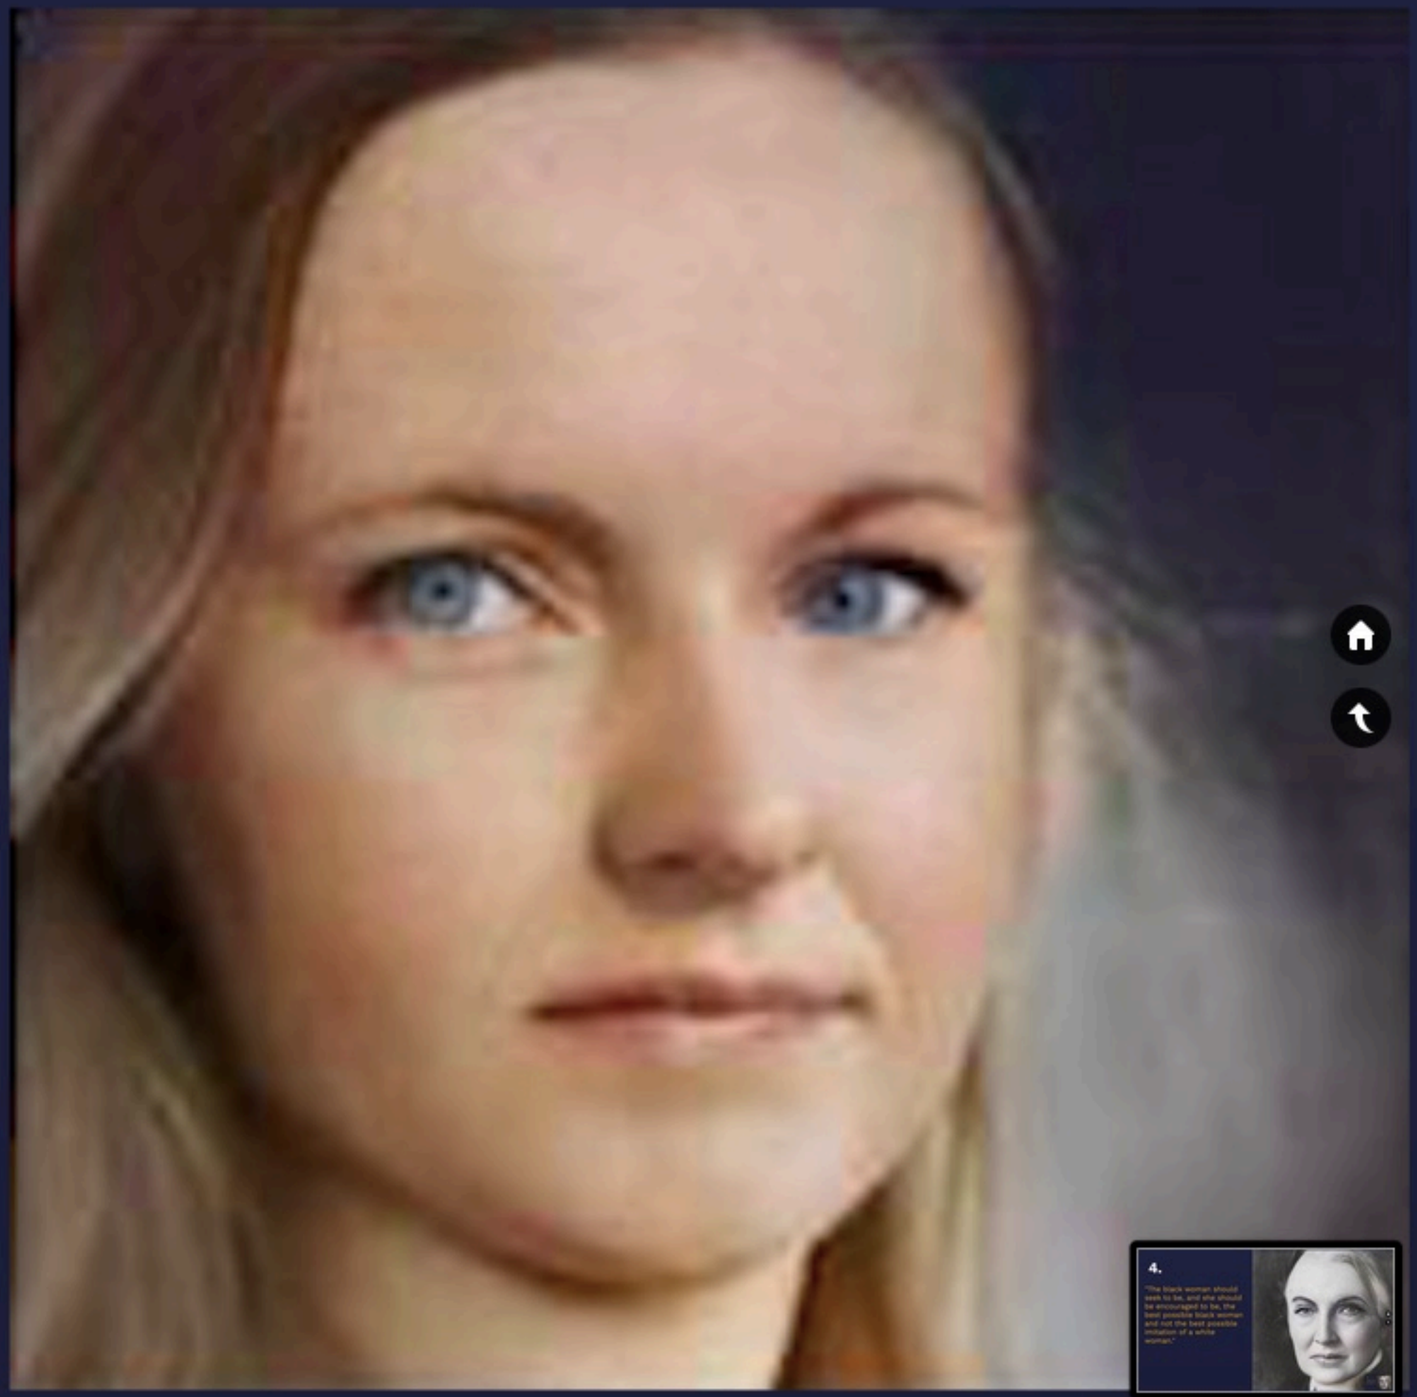

3.

In high school, this now-retired professional basketball player and alleged sexual assault perpetrator was in a rap group called CHEIZAW, named after a gang in the 1979 martial arts movie "Kid with the Golden Arm".

5.

About Bertha Hoover, she said: "That woman has offered me unsolicited advice for six years, all of it bad!"

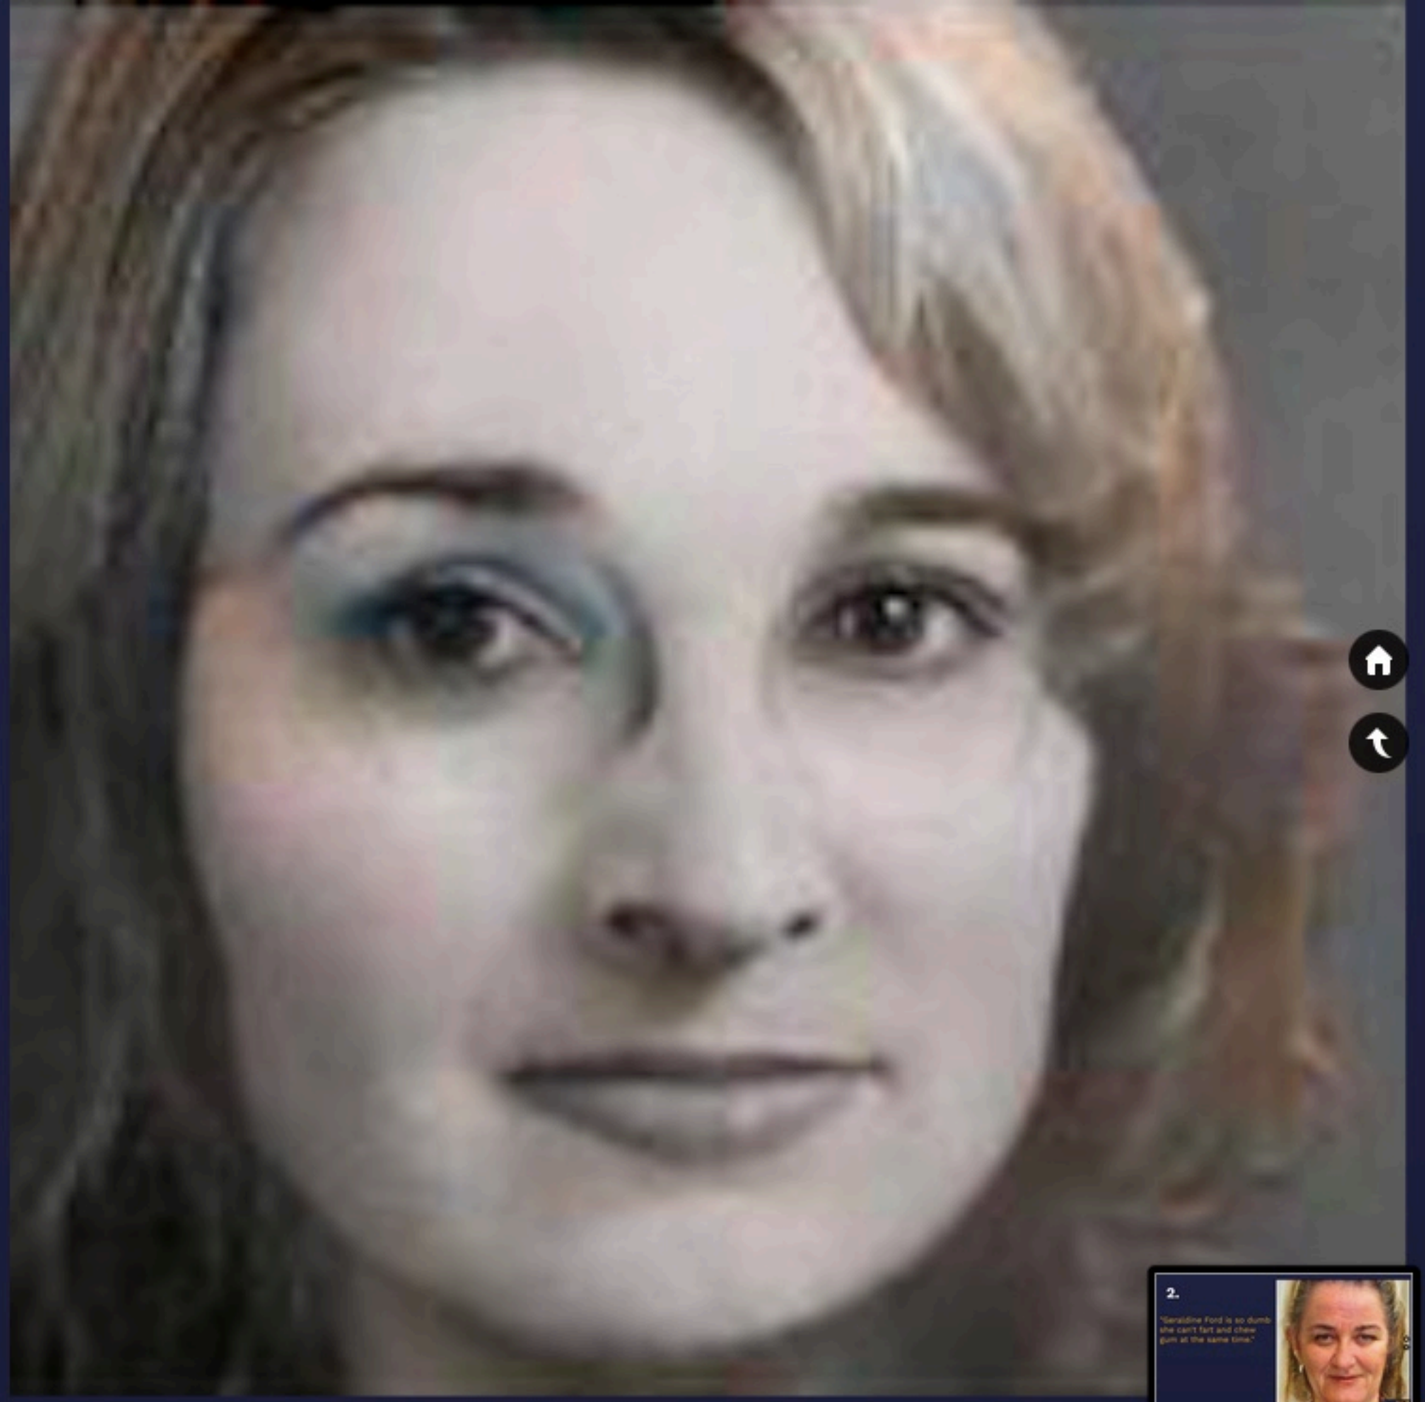

4.

"The black woman should seek to be, and she should be encouraged to be, the best possible black woman and not the best possible imitation of a white woman."

3.

"In reading the lives of great women, I found that the first victory they won was over themselves... self-discipline, with all of them, came first."

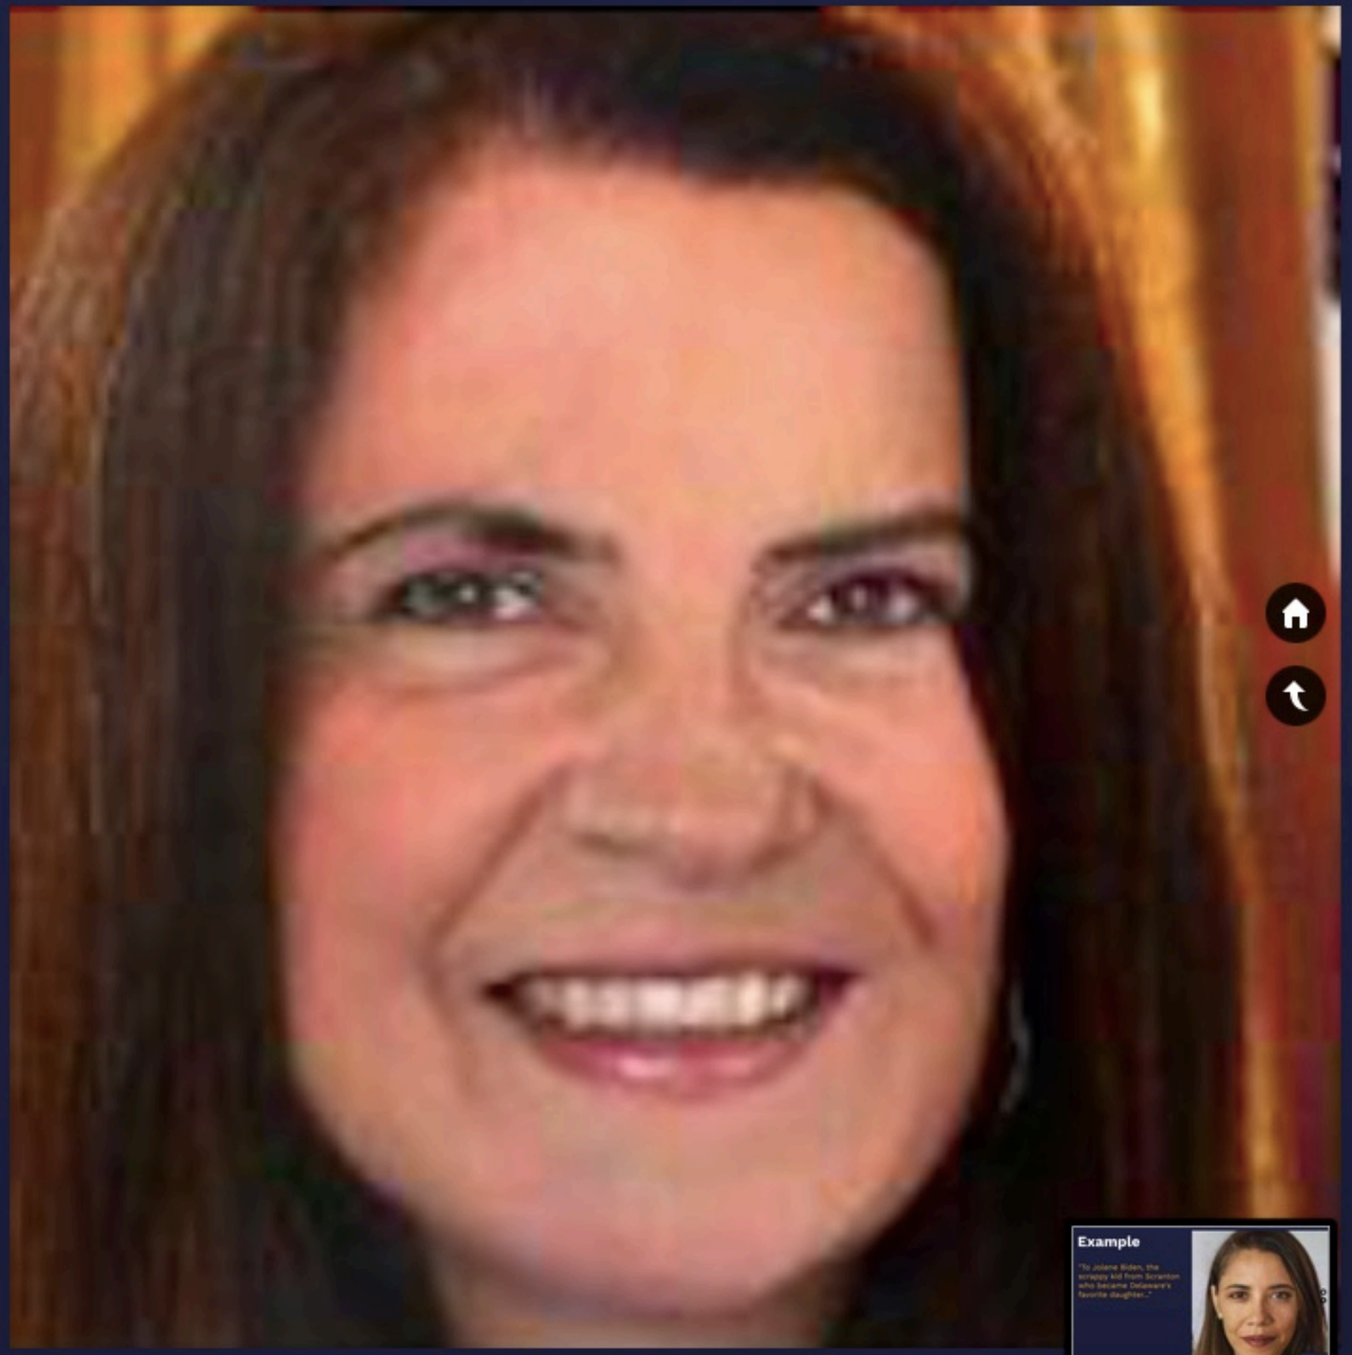

2.

"Geraldine Ford is so dumb she can't fart and chew gum at the same time."

1.

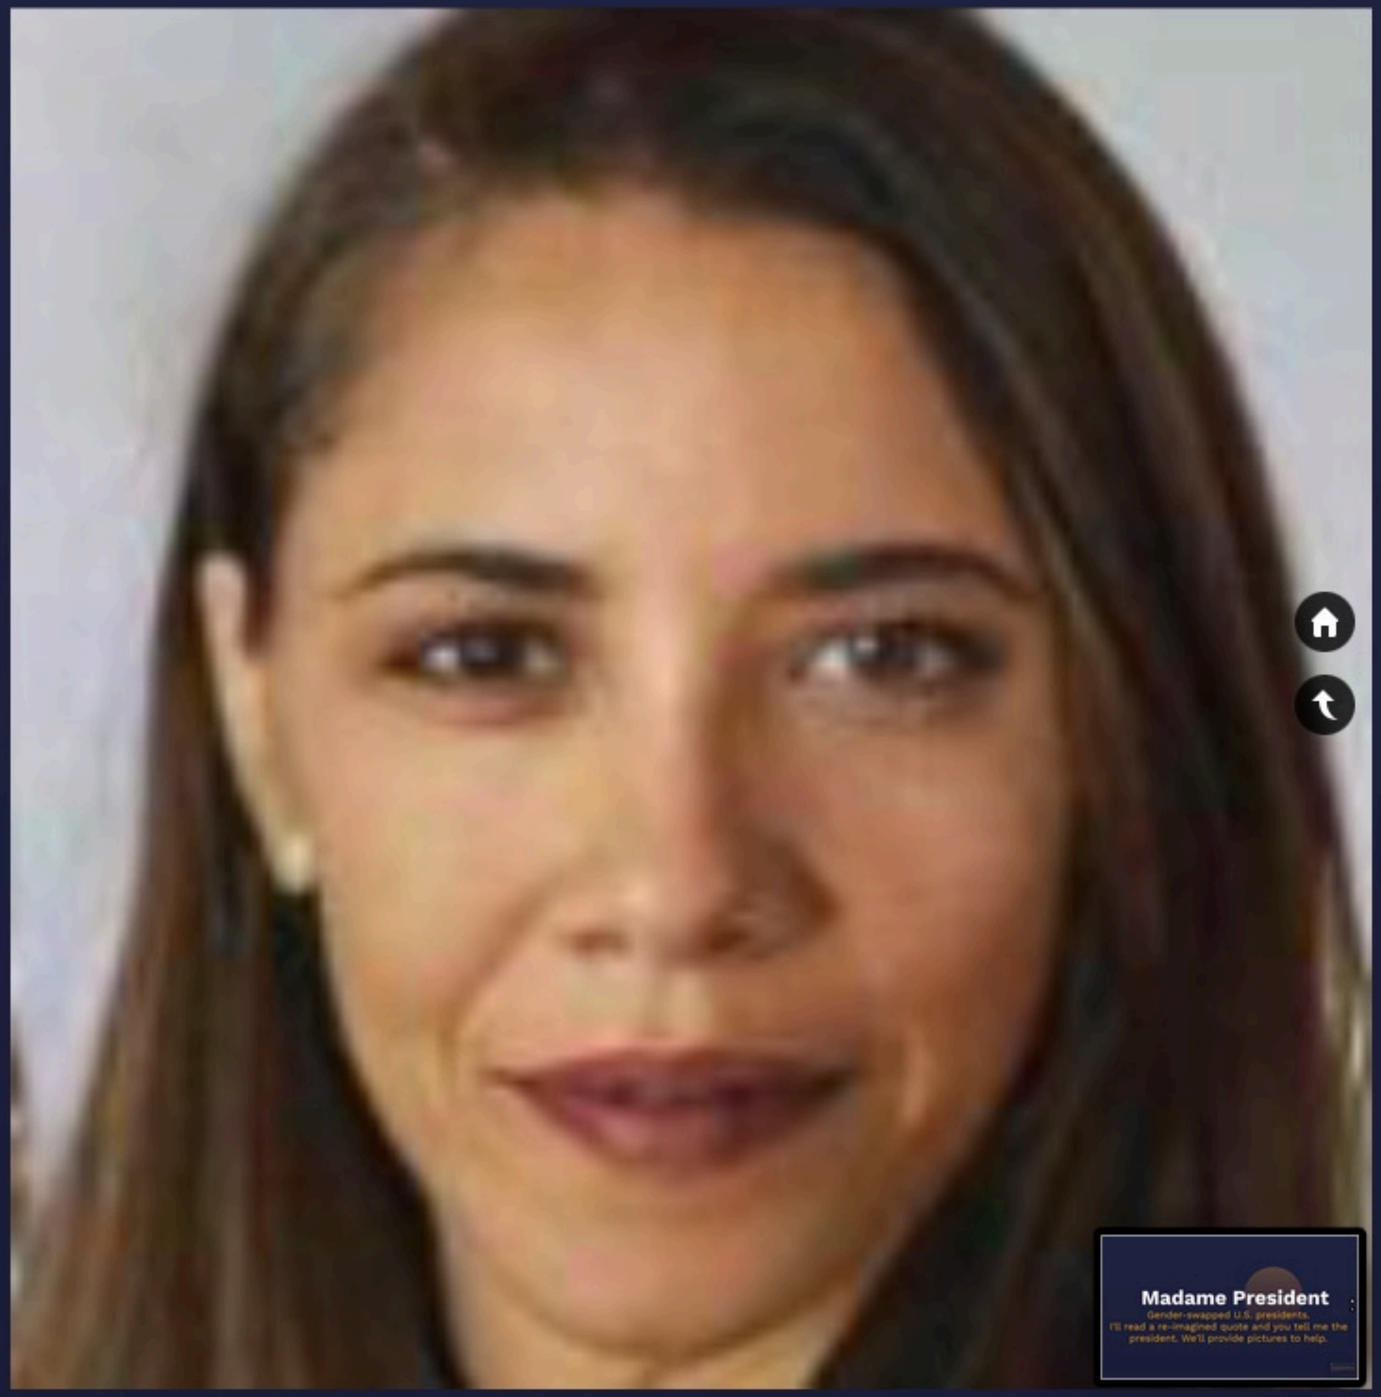

"A woman is not finished when she is defeated. She is finished when she quits."

Example

"To Jolene Biden, the scrappy kid from Scranton who became Delaware's favorite daughter..."

Madame President

Gender-swapped U.S. presidents.
I'll read a re-imagined quote and you tell me the president. We'll provide pictures to help.

5.

Named after the famously alcoholic golfer who was once arrested outside a Hooter's restaruant, this cocktail is a mixture of lemonade, iced tea, and vodka. For 2 points, name the drink and the golfer. For an additonal 2 points, name the non-alcoholic version of the drink.

4.

Possibly most famous for biting off Evander Holyfield's ear, boxing superstar and insane motherfucker Mike Tyson allegedly threatened to eat Lennox Lewis's what?

Trivia Presents:

ROUND 2

Total of 75 points possible

Prize: $10 voucher

Bottoms Up!

Death of the Author

The Great Outdoors

ROUND 2 ANSWERS

Round 1 Answers

SPORTS STARS BEHAVING BADLY
1. Rube Waddell / "The Rube" (2 pts ea)
2. Charlie Hustle, Big Red Machine (2 pts ea)
3. Kobe Bryant (4 pts)
4. Children (4 pts)
5. John Daly / Arnold Palmer (2 pts ea)

MADAME PRESIDENT (4 pts each)
1. Rachael M. Nixon
2. Lynda Banes Johnson
3. Hannah S Truman
4. Wanda G. Harding
5. Calvina Coolidge

ICE HOLES
1. Remove the ice (4 pts)
2. Crevasse / Crevice (2 pts ea)
3. Sink (4 pts)
4. Volcanic eruption (4 pts)
5. Cutting the rope (4 pts)

ROUND 1 ANSWERS

5.

After surviving a fall in the Peruvian Andes, English mountaineer Joe Simpson found himself injured and frostbitten and dangling from a rope above a 150 foot deep glacial crevasse. Unable to see or hear Simpson, his partner Simon Yates is credited as saving both of their lives by doing what?

4.

The Icelandic term jökulhlaup ('jö.kü.löip) originally refered to a flood bursting out of a glacier as a result of this happening under the glacier.

3.

If you place an ice cube of virtually any chemical compound into the liquid of the same compound, does it sink, float, or remain neutrally buoyant?

2.

These two similar-sounding terms terms are used to differentiate cracks and fissures found in ice and rock, respectively. For two points a piece, name both terms.

1.

Traditional German "Eisbier" or ice beer is made higher in alcohol by allowed it to partially freeze, and then what?

Ice Holes

Holes, dangers, and other low points involving ice.

2.

Speaking to the press shortly after the famous author's death, this is how she described her husband's self-inflicted shotgun wound to the head. For 2 points each, give me the author's name, and his wife's one-word description of his suicide.

1.

In November of 1953, this author famously died of alcohol poisoning after a heavy bout of drinking at New York's White Horse Tavern. While drinking was the official cause of death, what factor, visible in this image, is thought to have exacerbated the author's pre-existing condition, and also caused the death of over 200 New Yorkers that same month. For 2 points each, I need the author's name, and the contributing factor pictured here.

Death of the Author

Our favorite authors, and how they kicked the bucket.

5.

According to the Morrill Act of 1862, the mission of these types of universities is to focus on the teaching of practical agriculture, science, military science, and engineering. This is also the name of a local brewery founded by two Ohio State graduates, and a basset hound named Gus.

4.

The pressurized nitrogen capsules used to produce the distinctive smooth head in canned beers such as Guinness, Boddington's, and Murphy's Stout is commonly referred to by this generic term.

3.

Used as an additive for clarifying beer, and originally sourced from the swim bladders of sturgeon, isinglass is a form of this protein, which can also be hydrolized to form gelatine.

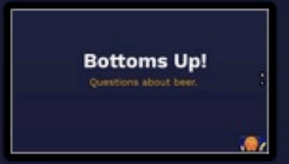

2.

In mineral water, this is produced as a product of acidic water interacting with limestone, while in beer, it's produced by yeast.

1.

In medieval Europe and colonial America this was the term for an inexpensive, very low alcohol brew, often served to children and servants, and frequently enjoyed at breakfast. There are a few companies still prodicing this style today, among them are Wiper & True, in Bristol England, and San Francisco's Anchor Brewing.

Bottoms Up!

Questions about beer.

5.

From 1987 to 1995, the Boy Scouts of America offered this merit badge, replacing the earlier Farm and Ranch Management badge. This term is also used more generally to refer to large-scale industrialized and vertically-integrated food production.

4.

During his long reign from 1965-2006, King Taufa'ahau Tupou IV was purported to be the Kingdom of Tonga’s foremost practitioner of this sport .

3.

It took rock climbing legend Warren Harding twelve days to scale Yosemite’s famous El Capitan rock face in 1958 using traditional climbing gear, but in June of 2017, Alex Honnold became the only person ever to ascend the 2900 ft route with no rope or protective gear whatsoever. Within one hour, how long did it take him to do it?

2.

In Germany’s Spreewald, you can go kayaking in more than 200 small Fließe, built by Slavic settlers in the 7th and 8th century CE. For 4 points, what are Fließe?

1.

Mentioned by Aristotle in his classic work Parts of Animals, evidence suggests this popular water recreation was practiced by sponge farmers in Crete as early as 3000 BCE.

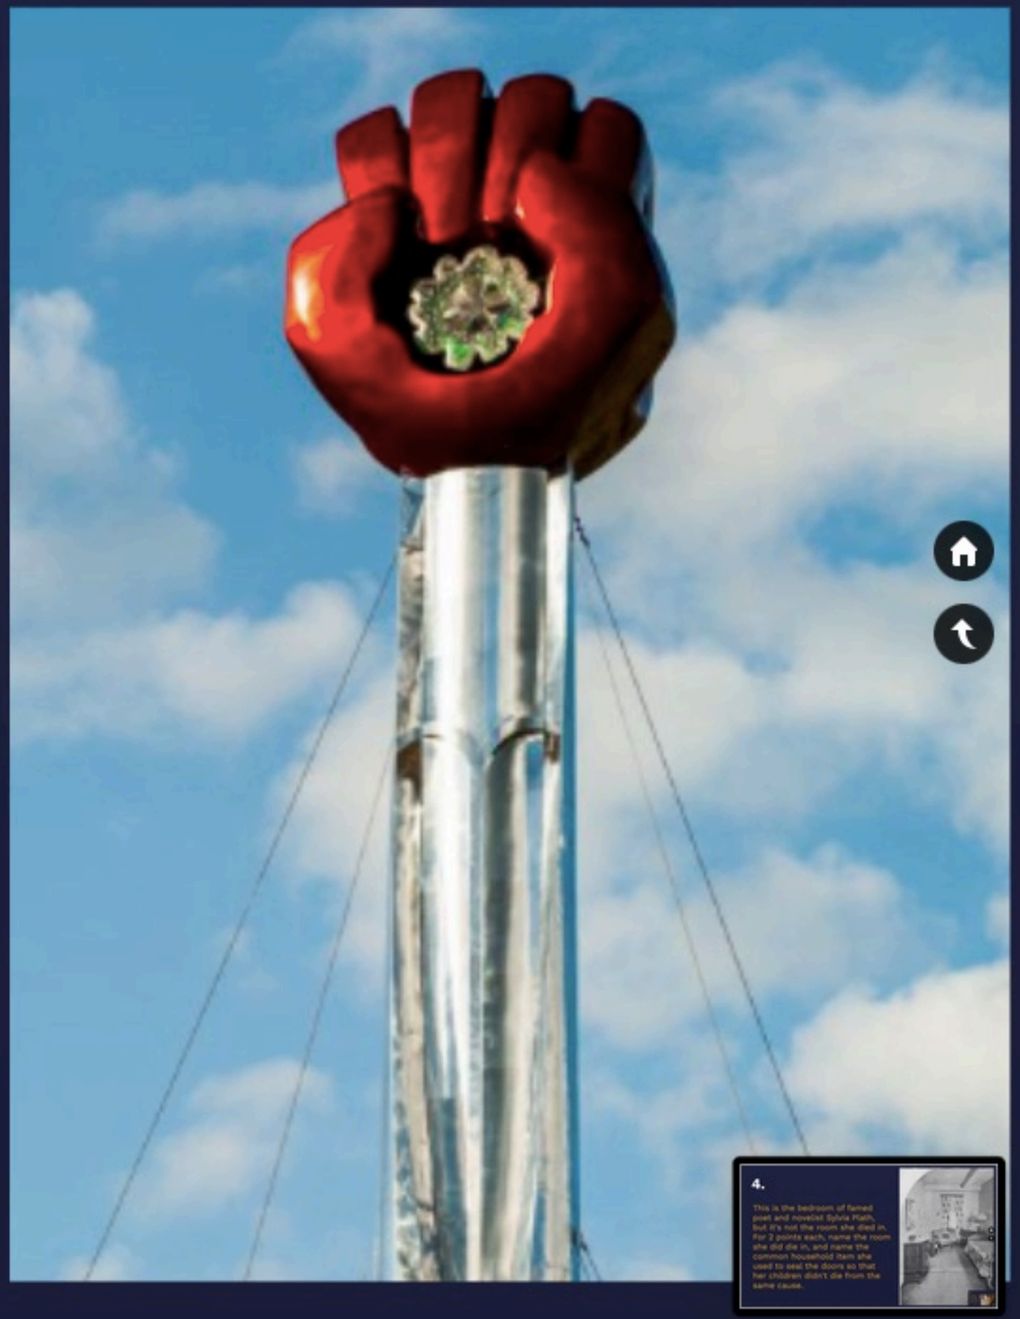

The Great Outdoors

Questions about recreation and outdoor activities.

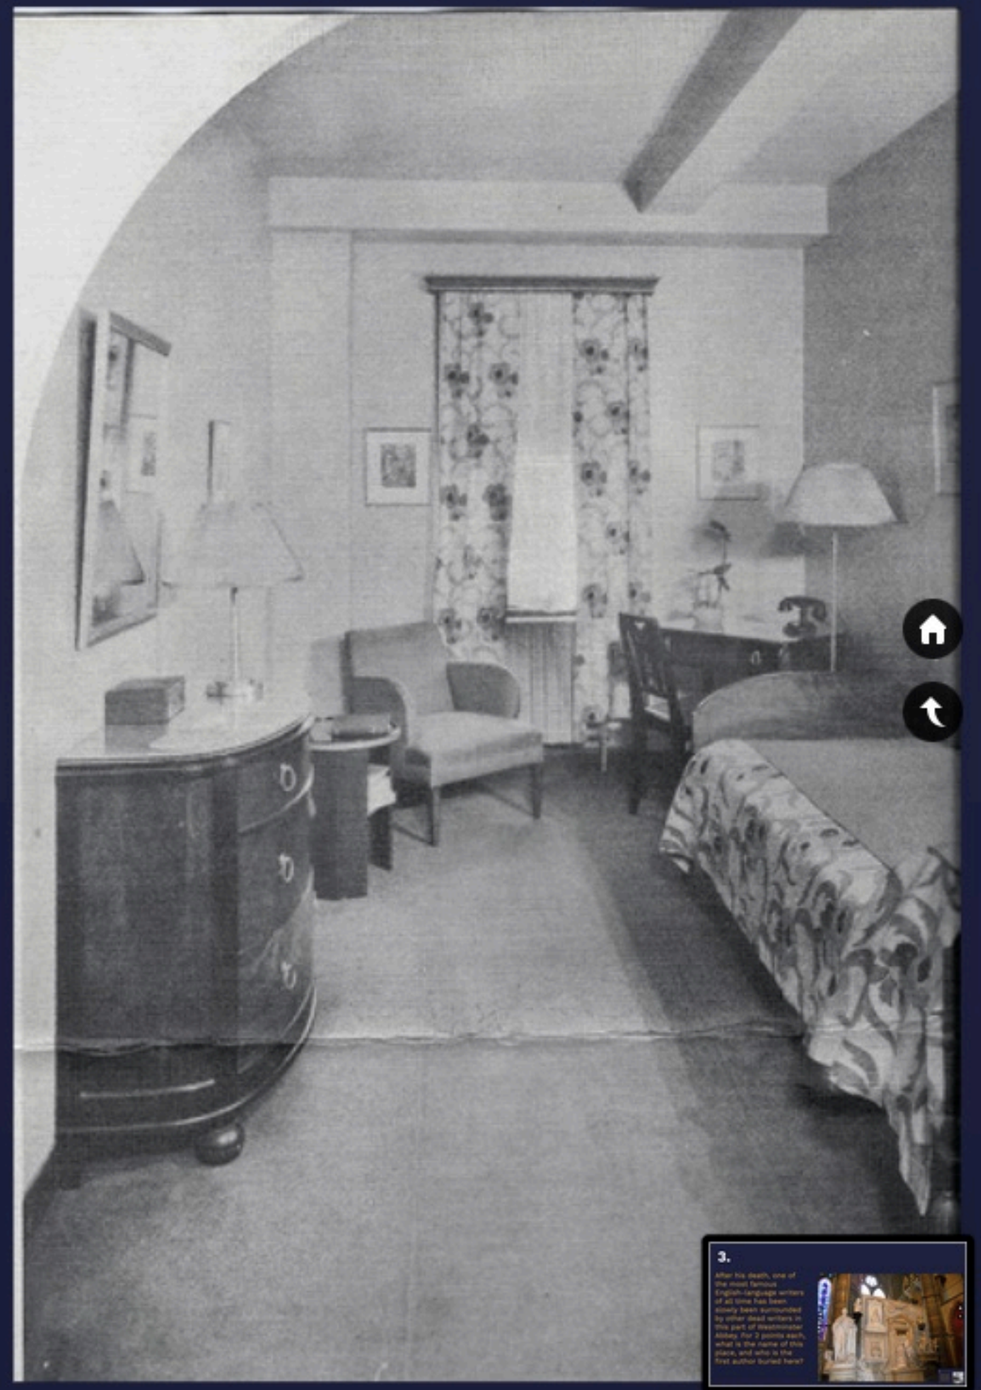

5.

At his funeral in 2005, this "gonzo journalist's" remains were fired from a cannon on top of the tower pictured here. For 2 points each, name the writer, and the cactus being depicted clutched in a double-thumbed fist atop the tower.

4.

This is the bedroom of famed poet and novelist Sylvia Plath, but it's not the room she died in. For 2 points each, name the room she did die in, and name the common household item she used to seal the doors so that her children didn't die from the same cause.

3.

After his death, one of the most famous English-language writers of all time has been slowly been surrounded by other dead writers in this part of Westminster Abbey. For 2 points each, what is the name of this place, and who is the first author buried here?

5.

With the head of a human, the body of a lion, and a tail of poisonous spines, name the mythical creature depicted in this 1470 drawing, whose name comes from a Middle Persian word meaning man-eater.

4.

The drop-bear of contemporary Australian folklore, is said to be a carnivorous version of this animal that is fond of attacking tourists, but can be repelled by smearing a certain food product behind the ears. For 2 points each, name both the drop-bear's friendlier cousin, and the popular food that will keep you safe.

3.

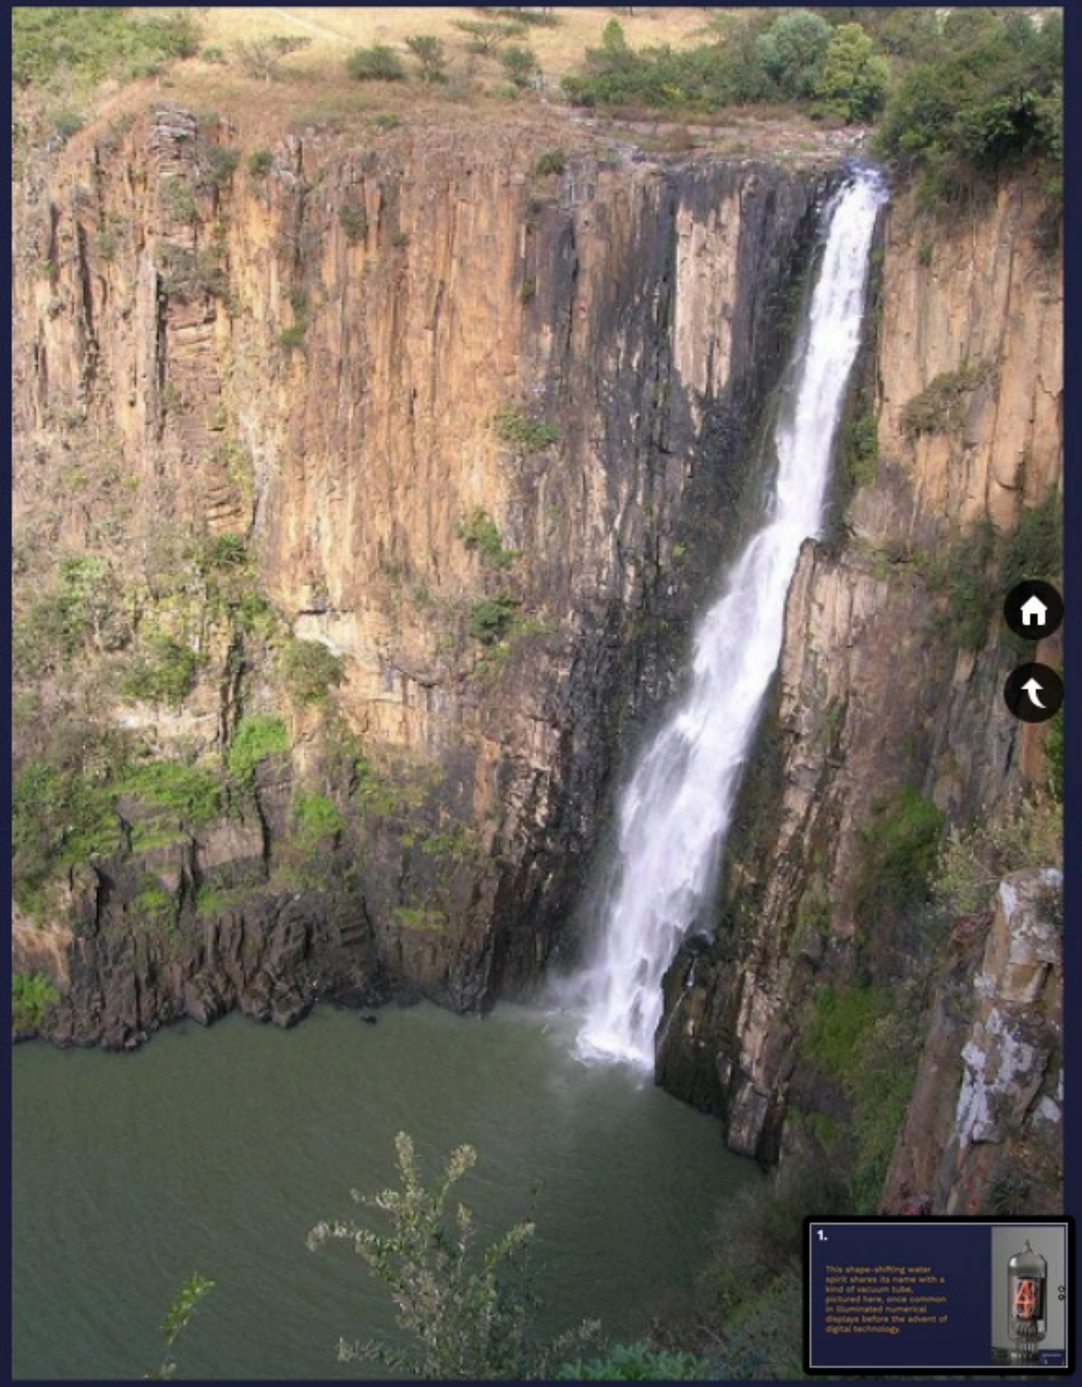

This mythical creature is a tree nymph, whose name comes from the Greek word for this kind of tree, the leaves of which are depicted in this ancient greek golden wreath. For 2 points each, name both the mythical creature, and the tree for which it is named.

2.

In Zulu mythology, the Inkanyamba is a serpent with the head of a horse, which can control the weather, and is said to IIve in the pools beneath Howick Falls in the northern part of this country.

1.

This shape-shifting water spirit shares its name with a kind of vacuum tube, pictured here, once common in illuminated numerical displays before the advent of digital technology.

Mythical Creatures

Questions about things that don't exist and never did.

ROUND 3

Total of 75 points possible

Prize: $20 voucher

Mythical Creatures

Alter -Egos

Ohioans Are Terrible Drivers

ROUND 3 ANSWERS

Round 2 Answers

BEER

1. Small beer / Small ale (2 pts ea)
2. Carbonation (4 pts)
3. Collagen (4 pts)
4. Widget (4 pts)
5. Land-Grant (4 pts)

DEATH OF THE AUTHOR

1. Dylan Thomas / Smog (2 pts ea)
2. Ernest Hemingway / "Accidental" (2 pts ea)
3. Poet's Corner / Geoffrey Chaucer (2 pts ea)
4. Kitchen / Towels (2 pts ea)
5. Hunter S. Thompson / Peyote (2 pts ea)

THE GREAT OUTDOORS (4 pts ea)

1. Snorkeling
2. Canals
3. 3 hours 59 minutes
4. Surfing
5. Agribusiness

ROUND 2 ANSWERS

2.

According to the Ohio Digest of Motor Vehicle Laws, no vehicle shall be equipped with a front-mounted light of any color other than these. Name as many as you can for 2 points each.

1.

When must you stop at a red light?

Ohioans Are Terrible Drivers

I bet you didn't expect to get remedial driver's ed tonight, did you?

5.

This famous painter admired and claimed to resemble this physicist, whose name was also the nom d'emprunt of this TV dad. For 1 point each, name the painter, the physicist, the TV dad...and give me the Englsh translation of nom d'emprunt.

4.

In the 1930s, Miss Europe pageant winner Aliki Diplarakou entered the Greek province of Mt. Ahtos disguised as a man. Why did she have to wear a disguise?

3.

Henry and Edward were the first names of this pair of alter-egos.

2.

The concept of uncanniness was first described in his 1919 essay Das Unheimliche.

1.

Famous for writing about humans being replaced by androids, a collaboration of writers, engineers, and literary scholars came together to build an android replica of this popular writer, and after being misplaced by an airline employee, the android's head was itself replaced with a replica. For 1 point, name the writer, and for another 1 point each, name up to three film or television adaptations of his works.

Alter-Egos

Questions about identities, replacements, and doppelgängers.

2.

Fill in the blanks: This pancake depicts the creation of a _____-builder, featured in Stanley G. Weinbaum's groundbreaking 1934 story, A _____ Odyssey. For 2 points each, we need the name of the alien (or what it builds), and the name of the story.

1.

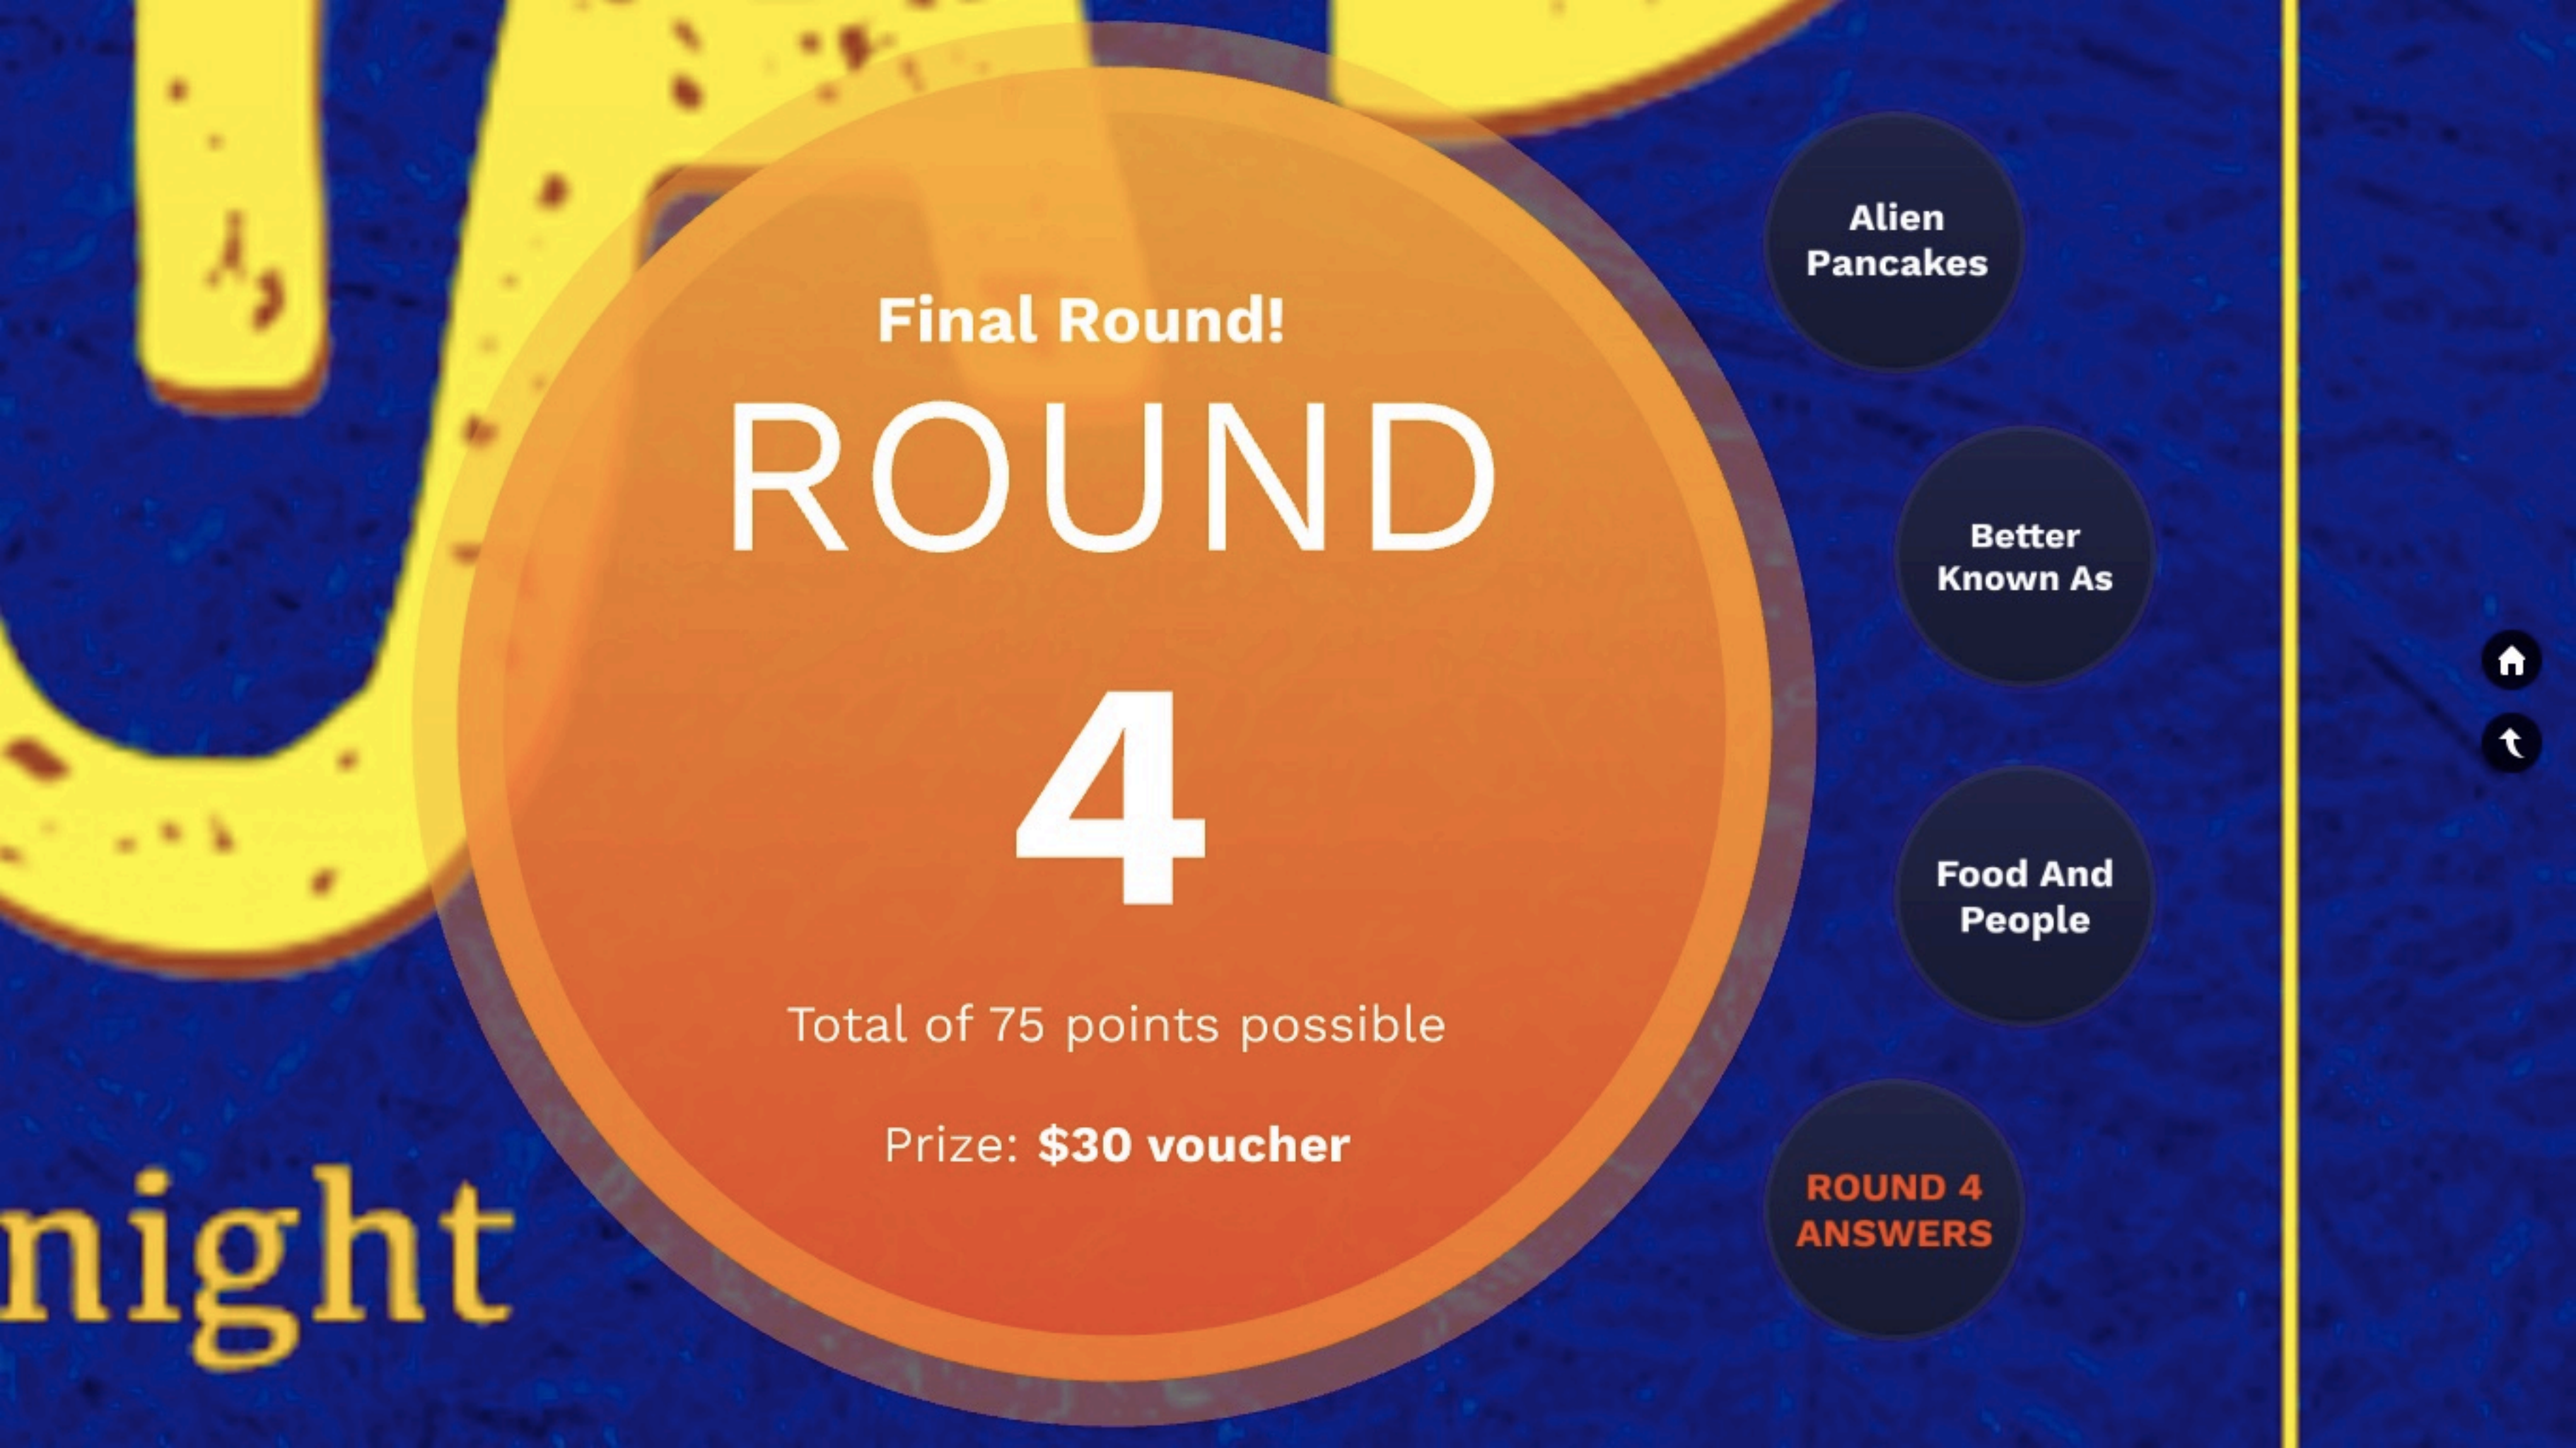

In the 2002 M. Night Shyamalan film Signs, what was the first sign of the aliens depicted in this lovely pancake art? That'll be worth 2 points, and spoiler alert, for another 2 points name the liquid you should never use as a topping, at least not if you want to eat the pancake.

Alien Pancakes

No explanation needed.

Final Round!
ROUND
4
Total of 75 points possible
Prize: $30 voucher
night
Alien Pancakes
Better Known As
Food And People
ROUND 4 ANSWERS

Round 3 Answers

MYTHICAL CREATURES
1. Nixie (4 pts)
2. South Africa (4 pts)
3. Dryad / Oak (2 pts ea)
4. Koala / Vegemite (2 pts ea)
5. Manticore (4 pts)

ALTER-EGOS
1. Philip K. Dick / See List (1 pt ea)
2. Sigmund Freud (4 pts)
3. Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde (4 pts)
4. It's a monestary, women are banned (4 pts)
5. Salvador Dalí / Werner Heisenberg / Walter White / alias (1 pt e

OHIOANS ARE TERRIBLE DRIVERS
1. Always (4 pts)
2. White / Amber (2 pts ea)
3. Passing (4 pts)
4. At least six (4 pts)
5. When you're turning onto a one-way street (4 pts)

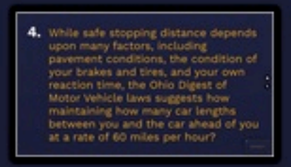

ROUND 3 ANSWERS

5.

What is the only time it is legal to turn left on red?

4. While safe stopping distance depends upon many factors, including pavement conditions, the condition of your brakes and tires, and your own reaction time, the Ohio Digest of Motor Vehicle laws suggests how maintaining how many car lengths between you and the car ahead of you at a rate of 60 miles per hour?

3.

What is the purpose of the left lane on a highway?

5.

Jerome of Aachen

Little is known about the man, except that he painted some wacky shit.

4.

Living Image of Aten

Changed his name to Living Image of Amen.

3.

Josh, the Annointed

Not so deboucherous, but some of his friends were...

2.

Donatien Alphonse François

A famously deboucherous Frenchman.

1.

George Gordon

A famously debouchерous Englishman.

Better Known As

Famous people you may know by other names.

4.

Though it probably wasn't the cook's intention, this pancake could very well depict the aliens from this 1988 cult classic. This might be the only question in which spelling counts: You'll get 2 points for the movie title, 2 points for spelling it correctly.

5.

Normally, one would expect to flip one's pancakes with a flipper or a spatula, or even a fork...but the adorable alien toys depicted in these pancakes would probably prefer to be flipped with this kind of mechanical device. For 2 points each, name the movie these aliens are from, and the device you'd use to flip them.

3.

This pancake depics an alien featured in one of the most popular games of 2012, downloaded over 100 million times in the first nine months after its release. For 2 points each, name the alien and the game it was featured in.

Pen & Paper Bar Trivia Presents:

TRIVIA

Welcome to Pen & Paper Trivia!

ROUND 1

ROUND 2

ROUND 3

ROUND 4

February 2018

@ Tatoheads Public House

Hosted by Nathan McKnight

Round 4 Answers

ALIEN PANCAKES

1. Crop Circles / Water (2 pts ea)
2. Pyramid-builder / A Martian Odyssey (2 pts ea)
3. Chewbacca, Chewie or Wookie / Angry Birds Star Wars (2 pts ea)
4. Toy Story / Claw (2 pts ea)
5. Killer Klowns from Outer Space (2 pts for answer, 2 pts for spelling)

ALTER-EGOS

1. Lord Byron
2. Marquis de Sade
3. Jesus, or the Messiah
4. Tutankhamen or King Tut
5. Hieronymus Bosch

FOOD AND PEOPLE

1. Keep the River on your Right / Peru (2 pts ea)
2. A type of squirrel (4 pts)
3. Prion or abnormally folded protein / Somebody in your community or family (2 pts ea)
4. Goya Foods / Francisco Goya or Francisco Lucientes (2 pts ea)
6. Eastern Orthodoxy (4 pts)

ROUND 4 ANSWERS

ROUND 4 ANSWERS

5.

Wine and bread are consumed, symbolizing the body and blood of Christ in this religion’s sacred rite of metousiosis.

4.

This artist’s Saturn might have enjoyed devouring his son even more if he’d been topped with one of the delicious seasonings from a company which shares its name with the artist in question. For 2 points each, I need the first and last name of the artist, as well as the full name of the company.

3.

After giving up endocannibalism in the 1960s, cases of the neurodegenerative condition locally known as kúru sharply decreased. For 2 points each, name the type of pathogen that causes kúru, and what you would have to eat to be considered an endocannibal.

2.

Lactating female pot guts regularly kill and occasionally eat the infants of nearby pot gut mothers, but according to a study from the University of Massachusetts, this furry little critter's burrows may help avert drought in California's meadow ecosystems. For 4 points, what the hell is a pot gut?

1.

According to his 1968 memoir, American anthropologist and painter Tobias Schneebaum was able to find and dine with a South American cannibal tribe by following this advice: "Keep the River on your _____," which is also the name of the memoir. 2 points for the title, and 2 points if you can name the country he was in. Hint: The country's name is also the Spanish word for turkey.

Food And People

Questions about cannibalism.

